STANFORD HANNAH, recently retired from his position as Superintendent of the Jefferson Union High school district, was honored last week by fellow members of the Daly City-Colma Lions club. Speakers included County Superintendent of Schools James Tormey, new Jefferson Superintendent Edward Morgan and Trustee Elio Fontana, who also served as chairman for the day's event. In his speech Fontana honored Hannah for "his efforts in making Jefferson High school a wonderful

BACK TO WORK — Colma cemetery workers returned to their jobs last week to begin the monumental task of restoring greens and grounds at the weed-infested cemeteries. But burials at almost all of the cemeteries were still held up because of the strike-lockout of 60 embalmers at 21 of 35 San Francisco mortuaries. None of the cemeteries, with the exception of Woodlawn and Golden Gate National will accept burials while the strike is in effect. THE RECORD photo

COUNCIL REJECTS EMPLOYEE PAY HIKE; CITES BENEFITS

Check Offers Lead In DC Bank Holdup

A payroll check made out to Raymond Bassett and drawn on the account of the Miracle Cleaners yesterday offered Daly City police their first lead in Wednesday's armed robbery of the Bank of America branch in the Westlake shopping center.

The check was left behind by the heavyweight gunman when he escaped Wednesday afternoon with $1725 in bank funds. Police Lieutenant Roy Beecher said today that he believes the holdup man had the check ready to hand over in case opportunity for the robbery did not arise.

Beecher advanced the theory that the check was inadvertently left behind by the gunman, who otherwise carried out the job in a cool and polished fashion.

Await Photo

Daly City officers were waiting at press time today for a picture of a Raymond Bassett, who answers the gunman's description and who has a lengthy police record. Stockton law enforcement agencies, which have a warrant out for Bassett on a charge of parole violation, were forwarding the picture.

Immediately on its arrival, the photograph will be shown Mrs. Dorothy Mendonsa, bank teller who was forced to hand over the money.

The bandit, who was neatly dressed in a gray suit and hat, attracted no notice in the near empty bank at 1:10 p.m., time of the holdup. He waited patiently in line until he reached the window of Mrs. Mendonsa, 90 Forest Grove drive.

Gun In Sock

Looking up, Mrs. Mendonsa said "yes, sir," and saw the muzzle of a gun from a hole in a gray sock. Without saying a word, the gunman handed over a note reading: "Be calm and I won't shoot. Give me your twenties, tens and five."

The fear-stricken teller placed $1725 on the counter, the bandit hurriedly crammed the cash in his pocket and walked from the bank. He left via the rear entrance by which he had entered.

Rings Alarm

After the gunman fled, she ran to Malamas to report the robbery. The chief teller rang the alarm. Mrs. Mendonsa described the gunman as in his early 30's, over 6 feet tall and weighing about 225 pounds. She said he wore glasses and was of extremely fair complexion with blonde hair and blue eyes.

He wore a heavy silver wedding band which was studded with several diamonds.

The bandit was not seen leaving the bank, although a milkman reported that he had seen two women and a man pull away in a station wagon type auto right after the robbery. The man was garbed in a white barber's jacket and was lying face up in the back seat of the car, the milkman said.

In an informal poll Wednesday night, the city council voted against any salary increase for 151 city employees, upholding recommendation received that same evening from the personnel board. Civil Service Employees association had sought a 10 per cent blanket increase.

Councilmen were unanimous in their stand. They pointed to the fact that employees had already received some $14,500 in fringe benefits and insurance and that this actually constituted a pay raise.

The personnel board based its recommendation on the same argument. In their letter to the council, the board declared, "The index of cost of living increased less than one per cent for the period December, 1954, to December, 1955, while the fringe benefits granted employees by the city far exceed one per cent of wages. With the increase in cost of health insurance the city will be called upon to pay nearly $2000 a year more owing to increase of present costs. The liberalization of retirement for employees is another fringe benefit costing the city approximately $7500 a year. Granting miscellaneous employees full pay for one year on industrial accidents could cost the city in excess of $5000 a year."

The personnel board held that, "After studying these factors and having had the opportunity to study the city council's budget, the personnel board feels that it cannot at this time make any recommendation to the council for a raise in pay for the city employees."

Other supplementary recommendations made by the personnel board concerning adjustments for employees who didn't receive increases last year, compensation for over-time, working hours for firemen and holidays for police and firemen, were held over for further study.

COUNCIL BALKS AT YELLOW CAB MISSION STAND

Two locations for Yellow Cab stands were approved by the city council in study session Wednesday night, but more study was called for on a third stand proposed at 6264 Mission street.

Location of stands at the Silver Moon tavern, 212 School street, and at the Town and Country Market in Westlake won tentative approval.

Stand proposed at the Daly City Cigar Store, 6264 Mission, met opposition from councilmen Del Wilson and Michael De Bernardi, who said that block on Mission street was already congested with Greyhound and jitney traffic.

The proposed Mission stand would be just around the corner from a Hilltop Cab stand on Beppler street.

Discussion was held on possibility of locating the Yellow Cab stand on Beppler, but Mayor Joseph Verducci declared, "We've got to be fair about this. We can't move Hilltop Cab off their location." The matter will come up for further discussion at Monday's regular council session.

During Wednesday's discussion, the council tentatively agreed to ask Greyhound bus to make its stop on Mission and Knowles instead of Mission and Hillcrest to cut down on the traffic congestion. Peninsula Bus Lines already makes its stop at Knowles.

WILL STATE DENY ACCESS ON NEW SERRA FREEWAY?

Ownership of Junipero Serra boulevard from Alameda boulevard south to the Daly City limits is still up in the air, although the boulevard was absorbed into the state highway system as a freeway last week.

CARPENTERS GO BACK TO WORK AS PACT OK'D

Bay Area carpenters strike, which during its 12-day duration held up $6,000,000 worth of construction in Daly City alone, was ended Wednesday.

Settlement came when three employer groups broke away from the builders' association and signed a three-year contract with the union providing a package wage increase of 52 1/2 cents an hour.

The remaining contractors were then forced to sign.

Provisions include a 12 1/2-cent increase, to $3.12 1/2 an hour, effective July 7; a 10-cent hourly contribution to a fund for vacations, effective January 1, 1957; a 5-cent wage increase and a 10-cent hourly contribution to a pension fund, effective June 15, 1957, and a 15-cent wage increase effective June 15, 1958.

Among the most relieved to hear the news were school administrators who had feared that the strike would prolong double sessions in the high school and elementary districts. Construction of Westmoor High school and Benjamin Franklin elementary school were threatened.

Pickets appeared Tuesday on the high school site to protest carpenters work being done by other tradesmen. About 20 workmen, members of other unions, refused to cross the picket line and walked off the job.

Commissioners Will Discuss Rec Director

Selection of a new recreation director tops the items scheduled for discussion next Tuesday at the regular meeting of the Daly City recreation commission.

Reports will be given on progress of construction at the community center, Westlake park, backstop and softball diamond, Parkview and Frankfort parks.

Revision of fees and rentals for the community center may also come up for debate.

City Insurance To Bid; Local Agents Plan Specs

Daly City's insurance will be awarded by competitive bid, but the North San Mateo County Insurance Agents association will assist the city in writing specifications for coverage, the city council decided Wednesday night in study session.

Peter J. Markovich, representing the local insurance agents group, at first pleaded against the city calling for bid, pointing out that the local group was made up of Daly City residents who made every effort to get the city the best possible coverage at the lowest rate.

At the outset of the debate, Councilman Sanford Vickers opposed automatically granting the policy to the local agents, declaring, "I don't believe in any closed shop deal. We represent the taxpayers." He pointed out that "Most cities award their insurance by competitive bid and save money."

"Pound Foolish"
Councilman Paul Hupf said the calling for bids "could be a penny-wise, pound foolish situation. Under the present method of insuring through local brokers, I think they are trying to get the best possible coverage at the least price."

City Manager Howard Stites explained that under competitive bidding, the local agents association would have the "odds in their favor" since they represent many different companies and they could select one of their members to come up with the lowest premiums.

"There's no problem," stated Mayor Joseph Verducci. "These men are doing a good job in insurance and we're trying to do the same for the city. Let these men recommend the best specifications and if the bids come in too high, we'll throw them out and go back to the association."

Political Activity

Debate waxed hot at one point when Vickers said a stipulation of awarding contract to the local agents should be that, "They don't engage in political activity. Your organization should be divorced from it completely. I have inklings of it."

Cop Pleads Guilty To Oil Theft; Fined $500 In Muni Court

Police Officer Richard A. Brohman pleaded guilty in municipal court Tuesday to a charge of stealing several quarts of oil from a local gas station on July 1. His companion in crime, Oliver Sass, entered the same plea last week.

Brohman, 37, 96 Bel Mar avenue, was sentenced by Judge Thomas L. Bocci to 30 days in the county jail suspended on condition he pay a $500 fine. He was placed on probation for 120 days and allowed 30 days in which to pay his fine.

The officer has been suspended from the police department for an indefinite period by Chief Roland Petrocchi who has recommended permanent dismissal to City Manager Howard Stites.

Brohman is the same officer who was suspended from his duties for 30 days on October 14 on a charge of drinking while on duty.

'No Garbage District,' Officials Avow

Mayor Joseph Verducci, expressing himself as "unalterably opposed" to creation of a special garbage disposal district, Wednesday night called for a meeting with South San Francisco officials to find out just what that city has to offer.

The Allen Engineering Report on garbage disposal received by the council this week recommended the special assessment district as the best means of answering the garbage disposal problem facing northern San Mateo county cities.

Looking over the report, Verducci declared, "I'll fight this." Councilman Paul Hupf also expressed himself in opposition to "the government taking over activities that can be financed by private individuals."

County supervisors have not as yet taken a stand on the Allen report, but two weeks ago they turned down Daly City Scavenger Co.'s proposed fill and cover dump site near Winston Manor.

Commenting on South San Francisco's envisioned fill and cover project in the tidelands area which would later be reclaimed for a recreation site, Verducci said, "I don't see how we are interested in the development of South San Francisco recreation. But we'll go there if it's logical and economical."

The mayor declared that, "The Daly City Scavengers will not be able to solve this problem by themselves. I'm absolutely certain of this."

The city will probably quiz three county officials expected to be on hand at Monday's regular meeting on the garbage disposal problem.

County Manager Robert Stallings, a member of the board of supervisors, and a representative of the health department are scheduled to be on hand Monday to speak on behalf of the new proposed health ordinance.

"I'll OK their health ordinance if they'll give us the garbage site we want," remarked Councilman Michael De Bernardi.

"Yes, that's a health problem, too," said Hupf.

Jeff High Now Sees 61-Cent Tax Raise

Unexpected increase of 61 cents in the Jefferson Union High School district tax rate appeared imminent today with the announcement by County Controller William Boynton that the bond interest and redemption rate will probably be more than tripled.

Boynton said that the bond rate would rise to approximately 48.5 cents from last year's figure of 14.7 cents per $100 assessed valuation. He explained that the district has now sold $286,253 worth of bonds, while during the 1955-56 year had sold only $76,648 worth of bonds. Boynton emphasized the fact that figures are only approximate.

The 48.5-cent figure coupled with the general tax rate figure of $1.44.7 will bring the total to $1.93.2. Last year's total figure was $1.32.5.

Change in the general tax rate figure to $1.44.7 was announced this week by Superintendent Edward Morgan. The original $1.56 figure was erroneous due to a mistake in computing allocation towards teachers retirement, the superintendent explained.

Tremendous rise in the tax rate will mean that the average homeowner with assessed valuation at $3000 will pay $57.90 this year in an increase of $18.60 over last year's rate.

General tax rate breakdown also was revised this week by the district with the following breakdown announced:

A figure of $963,745 is budgeted for total current expenses of education. This is $228,955 above last year's budget of $734,890.

A total of $946,783 has been allocated towards instruction, $90,390 towards operation of school plant and $63,334 towards school plant maintenance.

Other items are administration, $53,320; transportation, $48,810; fixed charges, $36,398; and auxiliary services, $24,800.

Capital outlay allocation is $734,632.

Undistributed reserve is set at $57,177, revolving cash fund at $1300 and general reserve at $10,000.

The board may still revise the budget until August 6, when public hearing is scheduled.

New elementary school board chairman KATHERINE MULLEN is now in a little more advantageous position to carry out the policy proposed by her last year calling for all meetings to halt at 11:30 p.m.

Mrs. Mullen had pleaded time after time, to no avail, as the sessions dragged on until the wee hours of the morning.

But since taking over the chairmanship she's been ruling the time regimen with an iron hand, as her first two meetings in the chair have ended on time.

Citizens weary of holding their heads up at 2:30 and 3 a.m. hope the tight enforcement of the policy will continue.

First Conviction Gained On DC Dog Leash Law

First conviction on Daly City's dog leash ordinance enacted last year was obtained Tuesday in municipal court, thereby putting "some teeth" in the statute, in the words of City Attorney Frank Blum.

DC AUNT CHARGES NEPHEW WITH GRAND THEFT

Warrant for the arrest of a Washington man, suspected of stealing two diamond rings valued at $1500 from his Daly City aunt, was issued yesterday morning.

Local police said that bulletins have been sent to Reno and Las Vegas law enforcement agencies in an effort to capture the suspect, a known gambler.

Victim of the theft, Mrs. Lillian Hungerford, 63, of 59 Miriam street, signed the complaint against her nephew-by-marriage, Victor Hungerford, 35, yesterday morning.

Mrs. Hungerford said her husband's nephew arrived in Daly City on June 30 and stayed until July 3 after which he apparently returned to his home in Tacoma, Washington.

The nephew then returned to Daly City on July 7 at which time he asked Mrs. Hungerford for a $1100 loan. He explained that he (Continued on Page 2)

Roland Potter, 148 East Vista, pleaded guilty to allowing one of his dogs to roam the streets without a leash and was fined $10, placed on six months probation during which his dogs must be kept on the premises, and ordered to eliminate one of his three canines.

Complainant was Mrs. Catherine Bradshaw, 141 East Vista.

Although several dog owners have been cited in on the newly-enacted ordinance, this marks the first time a violator has been prosecuted.

Appearing in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's court this week, Potter at first pleaded innocent to the charge, then left the courtroom for a few minutes, returned and altered his plea to guilty.

The ordinance requires that all dogs be on leash when on the public streets or walkways and violators are subject to a maximum penalty of $500 fine and six months in jail.

Blum said that Potter's conviction is important because it will discourage other dog owners from allowing their animals to run the streets.

Should Potter violate probation during the six months period by allowing one of his dogs to run loose, he would be subject to a much heavier fine.

CIVIC GROUPS TO MAP TRAFFIC LIGHT CAMPAIGN AUGUST 6

The city council, Westlake Improvement association and other civic and educational groups will meet August 6 at the Westlake clubhouse in a concerted drive to have state funds allocated for traffic signals at four dangerous intersections on Alemany and Skyline boulevards.

Council was notified of the meeting at their study session Wednesday night.

Resolutions urging installation of the signals already have been forwarded to the governor and the state highway commission.

RICHARD J. VERDUCCI, 424 Bellevue, who was in a slight auto smash-up last week, is a relative of Mayor JOSEPH VERDUCCI—a second cousin—at least according to another relative who called here this week.

The mayor said last week that Richard J. was no relation. But the anonymous relative who called said Richard J. and Joseph J. are related.

Somebody better check back on the family tree.

DAN CASENTINI, president of the Italian-American Citizens club, usually stipulates that only Italians, or Sons of Italy of Daly City, answer roll call as regular members of the club.

However, one of the members is a big, husky Texan by the name of FRED ADAMS, who neither speaks, understands or is Italian—"but is a working horse in our organization and enjoys it very much," according to the president.

Scheduled to appear August 9 for hearing before the State alcoholic beverage control board for alleged gambling activity at their establishment are ADOLPH CECCHI and DANIEL J. SILVESTRI, owners of the Bocce Ball on Rainier street.

Daniel J. is BOB SILVESTRI, well-known local amateur golfer. Cecchi was convicted on a book-making count in February after being arrested across the street from the tavern at 50 Rainier.

Silvestri, of course, was in no way implicated in the case but as a part-owner of the establishment is listed in the action by the ABC.

Last Friday Hungerford left the house, telling his aunt that he had met a rich girl at a San Francisco hotel the previous evening and that they were to be married in Reno.

The following day Mrs. Hungerford said she found the jewelry missing. Upon checking, she discovered that the two rings had been pawned.

Verducci reminded the group that, "The purpose of the agents association is to avoid a political football. It was devised so people wouldn't say we showed preference for one dealer or another."

Markovich, Mel Battye and Ricco Lagomarsino, representing the agents, said the city's proposal to confer with them on specifications was acceptable.

Stites was directed to meet the agents group and draw up the specifications.

Will State Deny Access On New Serra Freeway?

Wednesday from the division of highways asked Daly City's cooperation in forestalling any new projects that might infringe on the state's right of way and directed the city to "notify us of conflicting developments on this route."

This prompted Councilman Paul Huff to ask if this meant businesses along the boulevard might be denied access except where the state wanted to give it to them.

City Manager Howard Stites said he would investigate to determine if the city owned the boulevard in fee title. "If we do, then they can't take the access away from us."

Joint Highway District 10 turned the section of the boulevard in Daly City over to the city two years ago, but the highway district was dissolved last month.

Seek To Extradite Ruano And Oliver, Midget Bandit Pair

Extradition proceedings are underway to return John (Midge) Ruano, convicted in the slaying of Daly City bookie Martin Breslauer, and Jack Oliver, from Arizona to face three different charges by authorities of San Francisco and San Mateo counties.

Ruano and Oliver, Mariposa county robbers, were nabbed early Sunday morning after a 70-mile chase through the Arizona desert. On July 5 the duo led police of two counties on a "cops and robbers" chase down the Peninsula, touching off one of the biggest manhunts ever seen here.

District Attorney Keith Sorenson said he would file robbery and assault charges against the pair.

DC Court Revenue On Increase

Daly City's revenue from the northern district municipal court appeared to be headed for a substantial increase over the 1955 total, figures released today for the six-month period ending June 30 showed.

From January to June, 1956, Daly City has received total revenues of $24,405.50 from the court. At this rate, the city would realize about $48,000 from this source by the end of the year.

This compares favorably with last year's total revenue of $37,778.24.

Getting the lion's share of the $24,985 paid out to cities for the first half of this year was South San Francisco, with $36,301.34. Daly City was next in order, followed by San Bruno, $22,038.08, and Colma, $2240.10.

Daly City, however, had 6469 total citations issued, against 4736 for South San Francisco.

Breakdown of Daly City's violations showed: moving, 2453; non-moving, 1214; meter, 2802. Colma's total of 384 citations were all from moving violations.

Revenue gained by Daly City for the various violations was as follows: moving, $11,736.86; non-moving, $3450.78; parking meter, $2325.32; bail forfeitures, $2140.74; fines, $3841.80.

South San Francisco's higher revenue total was accounted for mainly by the fact that that city collected $16,579.64 in moving citations and $8020.76 in fines, far in excess of Daly City's revenue in these categories.

Another factor making South San Francisco's revenue higher is the fact that the county takes only a 12 per cent cut out of that city's revenue, against 24 per cent withheld from Daly City. The court claims that this cost is based on the amount of service which the court is required to give the city and that Daly City's higher number of violations increases the amount of work.

This method of withholding funds has been held "inequitable" by Daly City Councilman Del Wilson.

The municipal court paid a total of $75,689.47 to San Mateo county, almost as much as was paid to the cities.

Drop 'Bombs' Today In Operation Alert; DC To Take Part

Hydrogen bombs will be dropped today (Friday) on Alameda, International Airport and Palo Alto but Daly City will only catch the fringe of the nuclear fallout because of prevailing westerly winds.

The "bombs" are part of Operation Alert, a Bay Area civil defense exercise to test the efficiency of alert equipment and communications for evacuation.

The public will not participate in the drill, but Daly City officials and employees will work in conjunction with other Bay Area cities to test civil defense equipment.

Daly City police department will be the temporary control center. Yellow alert will be on at 8:01 a.m., the red alert at 9:55 a.m. At intervals throughout the day "bombs" will be dropped at strategic spots throughout the Bay Area.

Roy Foster is acting as head communications. The Daly City civil disaster council will also take part in the exercise.

TV's "Mayor of Tooneytown" (Channel 13, Stockton) will present trophies to the three age-group winners in the "Biff-a-Ball" contest to be held at this year's State Fair. The contest, for children through 14 years, will be held Sept. 5 at 1 p.m. in front of the Counties Building.

"How old am I?"

... asks Mrs. Robert Mize, 26 Park Avenue, Mill Valley

Whatever became of the "motherly" type? ... the woman who looked her age and (bless her) felt every minute of it? Answer: She vanished with the scrub board and the wood stove.

Today's mother stays young-looking (and has more time to be motherly) with the help of modern appliances. Take Mrs. Mize, who makes the most of labor-saving appliances. She's 34 — and mother to a brood of eight! (18-year-old Bob's in the Army.) Are you, too, making the most of modern appliances? With gas and electricity so cheap in California, you can run a whole household of appliances all day long for about half the price of most popular hair-sprays.

QUICK! CALL THE PROMOTERS

This year's San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta will include a simultaneous observation of equal, if not more, civic importance—the one hundredth birthday of San Mateo county.

Big things are planned for the centennial event at the county fair, and most of San Mateo county's cities are showing a little spunk by promoting the centennial event on their own.

In the nearby city of Burlingame all the town's merchants are preparing window displays appropriate to the 100th birthday theme. Each merchant's efforts are small, but as a composite, their handcraft will make a pretty impressive show. Combined with displays and events set up by other civic groups and the city government, that city should darn well know that its county is having a birthday.

Apparently in Daly City, the century of history means little. In a community that is rich in historical lore and contributed no little amount to the more robust days of San Mateo county, the sounding of a single firecracker would be more of a show than the centennial is being accorded.

Anything, or anybody that's reached the 100-year milestone is deserving of some recognition.

But the county's birthday party is going to be mighty uneventful here, unless some good promoters get busy right quick.

STITES HEADS DALY CITY-COLMA UNITED CRUSADE

Howard I. Stites has been appointed city chairman of the United Bay Area Crusade, San Mateo County district, it was announced today by P. R. (Bud) Taylor, campaign chairman.

Stites, city manager of Daly City and a resident of San Mateo county for the past fifteen months, has an outstanding background in various health and welfare agencies. He is a member of the San Francisco Council training committee & campaign committee of the Boy Scouts of America and institutional representative of the Rotary club of Daly City. Prior to becoming a resident of San Mateo county, Stites served as chairman of several fund drives in Southern California. He is a member of The American Society of Civil Engineers, International City Managers association and Rotary club of Daly City.

In accepting his appointment as Daly City-Colma city chairman, with the responsibility of organizing the 1955 United Crusade fund drive for that entire area, Stites stated: "The principle value of united giving lies in the proper supervision of budgets of welfare & character building agencies and equitable distribution of funds available to them. Equitable distribution rarely occurs when separate drives are made."

There will be score of free shows and events for this year's State Fairgoers, including dance revue, band concerts, drill team demonstrations, judging contests, stage shows, and many others.

Sutter County was named for General John A. Sutter, a native of Switzerland and founder of New Helvetia (Sacramento).

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

One of our contemporary ballet impresarios recently stated that he could keep his company touring the provinces indefinitely with a repertoire that consisted of "Swan Lake," "Scheherazade," and "Nutcracker." Gene Kelly must agree with him, as he included in his "Invitation to the Dance" an adaptation of the Scheherazade story entitled "Sinbad the Sailor."

Currently playing at the Stage Door, "Invitation" is composed of three separate dance sequences—"Circus," a tale with a commedia dell'arte flavor; "Ring Around the Rosy," a satire along the lines of "La Ronde," but cleaned up for the family trade; and "Sinbad," a combined cartoon and live-action episode which borrows its inspiration and music from the aforementioned "Scheherazade."

Great Dancers

So far as balletomanes are concerned, the most interesting thing is the presence of Igor Youskevitch, one of the greatest male dancers of this or any other generation, and Tamara Toumanova. Unfortunately, the demands made upon them do not begin to come up to their abilities, and such waste is inexcusable.

"Circus" was the most completely satisfying of the three. "Ring Around the Rosy" had some fascinating sets by Rolf Jerard and several amusing bits of business as a jeweled bracelet progresses from husband to wife and, after sundry adventures, back to husband again.

Undoubtedly the technical difficulties involved in combining live actors with cartoon characters are unbelievable, and it is to be regretted that the end result of so much work was "Sinbad." There are several beautiful effects and a dragon who feels that diamonds are a dragon's best friend, but it is doubtful if this sequence will please anyone except the children; they'll love it.

Intiguing

It is quite frankly an experimental film. There is no linking plot, not a word of spoken dialogue and, thank heaven, no running commentary. Its basic fault is that it has tried to do too much and please too many.

It didn't quite reach what it was striving for, but in making the effort it opened up such intriguing vistas that no one interested in fine films should miss it. It has done what hasn't been done before, and trailblazers never have it easy.

It was awarded the Golden Bear, grand prize of the Berlin Film Festival.

WHEN CAUGHT IN STORM

If you're out in a small boat and get caught in a storm, don't run from the waves, advises the National Automobile Club. Head into the waves and you'll avoid getting swamped.

Something For Everyone

By The Staff of the Daly City Public Library

Interest in war, especially World War II and the Korean War, is still very high, if demand for war books at the Daly City Public Library is any indication. Recent arrival of the first ten volumes in Samuel Eliot Morison's monumental HISTORY OF UNITED STATES NAVAL OPERATIONS IN WORLD WAR II has sparked interest in other books on that great conflict.

Exciting personal adventures are related in such books as: WE DIE ALONE by David Howarth, the almost unbelievable story of a Norwegian saboteur who was the lone survivor of a group sent to destroy a German airfield in the Arctic; NIGHT RAIDER OF THE ATLANTIC by Terence Robertson, about a famous German submarine and its exploits in the Atlantic area; COMMANDO EXTRAORDINARY by Charles Foley, which recounts the exploits of Otto Skorzeny; and of course, TO HELL AND BACK, Audie Murphy's famous autobiography.

Another exciting naval adventure is told in THE ALTMARK AFFAIR by Willi Frischauer and Robert Jackson, while Laurens van der Post tells a moving tale of life in a Japanese prison camp in A BAR OF SHADOW.

The Korean conflict is recounted in VALLEY OF THE SHADOW by Ward M. Miller, a story of miraculous escape. Even more recent events are told in Paul Grauw's DOCTOR AT DIENBIENPHU; the author gives an inside picture of his underground field hospital there.

Background for study of post-war Europe is given in Taylor Cole's EUROPEAN POLITICAL SYSTEMS, which analyzes the governments of all the major European countries. More specific information is given in such books as: THE COLOSSUS AGAIN: WESTERN GERMANY FROM DEFEAT TO REARMAMENT by Alfred Grosser; HOW COMMUNISTS NEGOTIATE by Admiral C. Turner Joy; and THE RAGGED EDGE: THE DIARY OF A CRISIS by Marquis Childs. Chester Bowles, our former ambassador to India, reflects on the revolutionary forces confronting United States foreign policy in his latest book, THE NEW DIMENSIONS OF PEACE.

Recent fiction from other lands also serves to give an insight into the minds and hearts of the people with whom we are now dealing. Some outstanding examples recently added to the Library's collection are: THE REVOLT OF GUNNER ASCH, a humorous story of German army life by Hans Hellmut Krist; FREEDOM OR DEATH, an epic story of Greek heroism by Nikos Kazantzakis; by the Danish author Kelvin Lindemann; THE NOTEBOOKS OF MAJOR THOMPSON by Pierre Daninos, and WOMAN OF THE PHARISEES and THE LAMB by Francois Mauriac, all three from France; A TALE FOR MIDNIGHT by Frederic Prokosch; THE SPIDER'S HOUSE by Paul Bowles, a story of current events in North Africa; SATAN IN GO-RAY by the great Jewish author, Isaac Singer; and Graham Greene's best-selling novel, THE QUIET AMERICAN.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Cost Of Garbage Disposal Discussed

Gentlemen:

In all the discussions on the problem of garbage disposal there seems to be one phase of it that has not been given consideration, and that is what the collection costs will be under the different plans suggested.

As it stands now, performance seems to be given to South San Francisco's plan of disposing of the Daly City garbage by dumping it in the bay at a point about one (1) mile on the other side of the Bayshore Highway in that city.

As I understand it, there will have to be an initial outlay of hundreds of thousands of dollars to prepare the location for use, in which the people of Daly City will have to share. Next is the added miles of haul with the probable result that the collection costs will double or perhaps treble the present Daly City rates.

It is interesting to note that doubling the collection costs will mean an added burden of some $80,000.00 on Daly City residents yearly and a treble cost would mean an added $60,000.00 or about a million dollars every six years.

This extra cost seems to have been given little or no thought by our Board of Supervisors as they unanimously denied a permit to the Garbage Collection Companies for a fill and cover operation in a location which is close by but entirely away from any residential district, being bounded by the 900 acre Christen Dairy Farm, two Chinese Cemeteries and the Russian Cemetery, an ideal location for such an operation and one that would serve Daly City for possibly 40 years at a minimum cost.

Very truly yours,

H. H. Smith

Speed Granting Of Variance Permit For Walton Home

The council Wednesday night expedited granting of a variance permit to allow volunteer workers to construct a new home for the James Walton family at 108 Knowles avenue, who were burned out of their dwelling in May.

The planning commission, in a letter to the council, said they could make no recommendation for variance to build on the 25 foot by 50 foot lot since they had received no application. The city building code requires that lots be 25 feet by 100 feet.

Pete Markovich, one of the leaders of a drive to build a new home for the Waltons, told the council that, "The planning commission won't meet for a month. I can't wait that long. We've got all the volunteer workers ready to go."

Pointing out that the council could not condone an illegal action, Mayor Joseph Verducci said the city fathers would do everything in their power to speed up granting of the variance.

Notice of hearing on the variance was published today. Hearing set for Tuesday, July 31.

SEWAGE DISTRICT BUDGET UP $10,000 BUT DIRECTORS PROMISE NO TAX HIKE

Budget of $102,705, nearly $10,000 above last year's, was given final approval Monday by the North San Mateo County Sanitation district board of directors.

The board promised, however, that the 27.2 cents per $100 tax rate would not be raised and possibly might be decreased.

Secretary Sanford Vickers said a decrease in the tax levy may be realized because of an unexpected boost in the district's assessed valuation. In computing the budget, Vickers said, the directors figured the valuation would rise from $35,010,785 to $36,000,000 but that it now appears this figure may go as high as $37,000,000.

$10,000 For Outfall

Included in the 1956-57 budget is a $10,000 item for increasing the outfall line under Lake Merced from 18 inches to 24 inches, to prevent "back-flow" from the line into the plant, created by flow of sewage from a larger to a smaller line. A total of $11,000 in state Chapter 20 funds will be added to this allocation to finance the outfall line and other capital improvements projects.

Breakdown of the budget showed: salary, wages, $37,000; plant operation, $3,000; tools, equipment, $200; conference expenses, $200; services to Daly City, $1,000; telephone, $240; old age survivor's insurance, $540; utilities, $5,000; office supplies, $300; auditing, $200; insurance, $2800; pump repairs, maintenance, $5,000; screens, $1,500; extension of sewer lines, $6-annexation fees will be set aside in a special fund for plant expansion, and therefore have not been 000; outfall line, $10,000; bond interest and redemption, $29,525.

Uphold Annex Fee

At Monday's meeting the district upheld its policy of charging $25 per lot on newly-annexed property to offset cost of sewage installations and service. Henry Doelger's representatives, Carl Timmons and Ted Tronoff, presented maps of the 640-acre Westlake unit 9, part of the 440 acres annexed two years ago, and received tentative approval by the board.

This development will bring in $15,500 in annexation fees to the district this year. Revenue from included in estimated revenues for the budget.

In other action Monday, the board:

1. Hired Alfred O. Belutz to audit district books for fee of $200.

Stoneson Line

2. Called for further investigation by Chairman Thomas Callan Sr. on temporary sewer line installed under Fairlawn avenue by Stoneson Bros. The corrugated line does not conform to district standards, according to directors, but Stoneson Co. maintains they completed their obligations in installing the line. Callan will meet with County Engineer Melville Grant to determine if Stoneson has fulfilled commitments to the district.

3. Tabled report on garbage disposal unit at Town & Country Market.

4. Called for further reports from district engineer C. L. White on agreement with school district for installation of line at Benjamin Franklin school.

Columnist Interviews TV's George Gobel At Lake Tahoe

By Mona Baker

TV & Radio Columnist PERSONALITY SKETCH FROM LAKE TAHOE... "Yes," proudly exclaimed George Gobel, famous NBC television star in answer to our question... "We did catch a fish, he weighed 3 1/2 pounds and was 22 inches long!" "And," chimed in his petite lovely wife, Alice, "They cooked it here for us and we had it for dinner." The discussion on fishing came up as we talked with the Gobels between shows at beautiful Cal Neva Lodge on the shores of Lake Tahoe.

One of television's most talented performers, George Gobel was the star attraction at the lodge for a one week engagement and according to Dave Siegel, Cal Neva's dynamic entertainment director and producer, they actually turned away "thousands" of people during his engagement because reservations for every show were filled.

Ardent Fisherman

Completing his television series for the season the previous week, Mr. Gobel had sandwiched in a week's appearance at the lodge before beginning work on his forthcoming RKO picture "I Married a Woman" which was set for an eight to ten week shooting starting on July 16. Combining a vacation with his nightly appearances at the lodge, the Gobels brought their three children, Greg 10 1/2, Georgia 5 1/2 and Leslie 2. Greg is an ardent fisherman and Mr. Gobel said that together they landed the trout.

Discussing his television plans for the fall, Mr. Gobel said so far the format of the show is not complete. However, he said that the program will be seen at the same time over the NBC network (KRON-TV, Saturdays, 10 p.m.) and he proudly added, "with the same sponsor."

Quiet "Dignity"

It was time for the show so we entered the beautiful Indian room of Cal Neva Lodge. The stage was colorful with a background of bright red and blue Indian symbols, flanked on either side by two brilliantly painted tepees. Following the chorus and several musical numbers skillfully staged by producer Dave Siegel, the star of the show appeared. With his delightful subtle sense of humor, and his keen showmanship, George Gobel kept the audience thoroughly entertained. His type of comedy is quite unique... he has a quiet almost dignified way of talking and yet he is so clever that he had only to start a sentence and the audience was off in gales of laughter.

In answer to a question during our interview, Mr. Gobel said that he "believes television is here to stay"... we would like to add, not only is television here to stay but Mr. Gobel too. With his delightful brand of humor... his warmth and modesty... his genuineness and fine showmanship... we know that he will continue to be one of the nation's leading entertainers.

AREA GOVERNOR TO ADDRESS LOCAL TOASTMASTERS AT THURSDAY MEET

Area Governor Ward Cleveland is scheduled to act as guest toastmaster when the Daly City Toastmasters convene Thursday, July 26, for a special "guest night" session at San Pedro lunch.

In order to present a complete picture of toastmaster training, the four speeches of the evening will be in the order of experience. Scheduled to give his initial talk is Richard Liberty, while Paul Ward will present the number two speech in the toastmasters program. Sanford Vickers and Louis Rief will present, respectively, speeches three and four. Alternate speakers are Monte Dayton and Bill Larsen.

Newly-elected educational vice president Al Beerbower also listed the following other positions for the July 26 meeting: table topics, Frank Monte; chief evaluator, Owen English; timekeeper, Stan Wilson; wizard, Frank Blum.

Beerbower assumed office as new educational vice president at last Thursday's session, while Ward was named to the administrative presidency. They succeed Louis Minkin and Blum, respectively.

President Wilson announced that of the many guests expected to attend the July 26 meeting, several may be accepted into club membership, there being a few openings for active membership and 20 positions for alternates.

Scavengers Prexy Says Hopes Up For New Disposal Site

Al Sereni, president of Daly City Scavenger Co., said today that negotiations are currently underway to purchase a fill and cover dump site of "about 60 acres and big enough to last us for 30 years."

The local scavengers were turned down by the county supervisors last week on their request to operate a disposal site west of Junipero Serra boulevard near Winston Manor subdivision, mainly because of protests by residents of the subdivision.

Sereni said the dump site now under study was far enough away from any residential area so that he expected no protests.

"I've got a hunch this one will work out," he said. "We'll probably have an answer before the week's over."

The Daly City garbage men are currently dumping on the Skyline property owned by Chris McKee and their lease is subject to revocation on 30 days notice.

Broadmoor Kids Are Going To Summer School—For Bike Riding

Thirty Broadmoor youngsters are going to school in the summer time.

The instruction is not academic, however. It's the annual Broadmoor bicycle school, sponsored by the police department.

Classes are held each Tuesday at 3 p.m. and sessions will continue all summer.

On successful completion of the class, youngsters are awarded their drivers licenses.

The less cautious drivers who are arrested for infractions of safety rules set up by the police department, must "face charges" and "tell it to the judge."

Court will convene for the first time this summer on July 25 at the Broadmoor police station and those found guilty are usually given sentences ranging from a day to a week's suspension of license.

The first nonstop flight from Oakland to Hawaii, 2407 miles, was made June 28-29, 1927, in 25 hours, 50 minutes.

McKAY QUILTS AS BPOA SECRETARY TO CAMPAIGN

James McKay, Democratic candidate for United States congress, last week resigned his position as secretary of the Broadmoor Property Owners association. McKay explained that campaigning will take the majority of his time until the November election.

The resignation was accepted with regret by the remainder of the board members, according to President Robert Buchanan. Persons having suggestions for replacements were asked to contact the president.

McKay, who is opposing incumbent J. Arthur Younger of the ninth congressional district, will continue to serve the BPOA in an ex-officio capacity and on several committees.

In other business the board:

1. Asked Mrs. Mary Cuppola, chairman of the community center committee, to prepare a report on cost of improving the exterior appearance of the building. The study will be presented directors at their next meeting.

2. Voted to oppose granting further continuances to the Daly City Seavenger company for use of their present garbage dump site. Buchanan explained that reason for the action was the smoke nuisance to Broadmoor residents.

3. Re-appointed Ross Hilton to the job of administrative assistant at a salary of $65 per month.

4. Issued a reminder that bids for replanting and trimming trees in the area will be opened at the August 9 meeting.

SUCCESSFUL B'MOOR REC PROGRAM DEMANDS HIRING SECOND DIRECTOR

The special summer recreation program in Broadmoor-Colma area is highly successful—so successful that another director will have to be hired and more money to pay his salary, Thomas Jenkins told the Broadmoor Property Owners association Thursday night.

Jenkins, chairman of the BPOA's recreation committee, told the membership that the program, sponsored by homeowners' groups, James L. Snell and the Jefferson School district, was "extremely successful." He declared the parents were "very pleased with the foresight of the school board in undertaking the program."

The school district, using funds from the 5-cent community services tax, last month allocated $5348.40 to be used for the summer program.

However, Jenkins explained that the program was so successful—to the extent of 500 to 600 youngsters a day—that more personnel is needed to handle the attendance.

Jenkins was authorized to appear before the school board at its next meeting and ask for an additional $192 to pay salary of an extra director who will work half-a-day until the conclusion of the program August 24.

Gas Station Theft Called 'Inside Job'

Investigation has shown that burglary of the Standard Oil gas station of 2089 Junipero Serra boulevard on Saturday night was an inside job, according to police. Loss to the company was $123, which was taken from the locked safe in the office.

Officers were first informed of the theft on Sunday morning by Michael Derish, 63 Crestview avenue, an attendant at the station. Derish told police that he arrived at 10 a.m. to find the station closed and the safe open with $10.55 in small change scattered on the floor.

The key to the safe was left in the lock by the culprit. There were no signs of forced entry.

Another attendant, Jerry Winslow of 55 Chumasero drive, apartment M, Parkmead, was supposed to have opened the station at 7 a.m.

A friend of Winslow's, George Schreiber of 33 Knowles avenue, told officers that he went to the station at 9:35 a.m. to collect a $2 debt from Winslow. When he found the station closed he went to the attendant's apartment which was empty.

Inside the gas station office was discovered a note reading "I'll see you next week." Police said initials at the bottom were illegible.

Standard Oil company had not signed a complaint at press time, police said.

OLPH CHURCH TO REVIVE 3-DAY FESTIVAL EVENT

Once again, by popular demand, Our Lady of Perpetual Help church will hold a three-day festival, appropriately called "Top O' the Hill" Festival, since the affair will take place in the school auditorium the week end of September 21, 22 and 23.

With over 200 parishioners acting as a committee, James Goulden has undertaken the responsibilities of general chairman, with Father Norman Allen as honorary chairman. Goulden will have as aides Peter Lofrano, Bud Lycett and Joseph DiMaggio. Committee members will attend a business meeting and dinner dance in the near future to perfect plans.

All types of amusements will be offered, and a complete Sunday dinner will be served. If past performances are any standards this should be one of the more popular features of the festival, according to Goulden. A children's concession is being planned with special emphasis on games and fun for the little ones.

George Calegari is in charge of the decor and is designing special interiors for the event. Calegari is well known in Daly City for his talents along these lines having been responsible for the sensational circus and western themes which characterized O. L. P. H.'s festivals in the past and which attracted admirers from all over the Bay Area.

The artist is often credited with having started the theme idea which so many organizations have adopted for their various bazaars and carnivals and which has added so much color and gaiety to these undertakings. Calegari is being assisted by Al Laun, John Muller, Joe DiMaggio and Earl Hethcoat.

Queen Isabella Crown Contest Well Underway

Race for the Queen Isabella title in the three-day Columbus Day celebration of the Italian-American federation of San Mateo county is well underway, according to Dan Casentini, president.

All contributions to the contest are used by the federation to establish scholarships. Last year's event enabled three high school seniors to assume a college career with their $500 scholarship awards.

LINCOLN PARK

By Mike Sibitz

Last week 71 Lincolnites went to the Zoo, Judy Pelice and John Silver were seen feeding the ducks while Ruth Shea, Joey Rice, Steve Willis, and Ron Sfarzo followed Guide Mary Whalen through the Zoo. A big thank-you goes to Faye Orovitz who helped make the event a success.

The girls of Lincoln will soon have the chance of demonstrating their abilities as future housewives as they engage in a cake baking contest. The cake bake will be held Friday July 27 at 1:30. Prizes will be awarded to the best cake baker of this event.

EDGEWOOD PARK

On our recent Zoo Outing, Jimmy Knight discovered that one of the Ostriches was trapped and immediately notified one of the zoo attendants. The children sympathetically watched as five attendants, working for over a half hour, skillfully and patiently released her.

The buried treasure hunt held July 10, was a huge success as over 16 children, six years and under, dug feverishly to discover the whereabouts of the buried treasure. It took Linda Starke an hour of uninterrupted digging to eventually discover the whereabouts of the treasure and emerged as the lucky winner.

Thursday, Ronnie Starke, seven years old, outshot nine other boys and girls to win the marble contest. Larry Brown came in 2nd and Marty McGee 3rd. "Purries" could be seen dominating the choice of most contestants as their favorite sports.

ARCHERY

By Helen Paris

The third week of the archery program was highlighted by a balloon shoot at the Colma school playground. The balloon shoot proved to be very successful and will be continued next week at the various playgrounds throughout Daly City. The balloons were graciously donated by the Toy Circus Shop of Westlake. The leading marksman at Colma were Danny Luciano and Wayne Crane each with two bullseyes. John Nessler, Joe Cavanaugh, and Robert Ballestreri each had one.

By Jim Hough, Dorothy Chase, and Roberta Taylor

The arts and crafts program this week concentrated at all the centers on paper bag hand puppets. The children decorated the bags with faces, hair, and clothing made of construction paper. Some of the cleverest hand puppets were made by Loretta and Helen Martinez, Tommy Trujillo, Roseann and Leo Pinnatore, and Diane Bertelli.

Pyrotechnics was again popular for making key chains and lanyards. David and Kenny Iwahashi both made fine lanyards. Next week, pyrotechnics will be used for weaving belts and bracelets. Many of the older children enjoyed painting and glazing plaster of paris figurines and wall plaques.

MOVIES

By Rich Watson

Last week's cartoons again went over with overwhelming success. The program was highlighted by a Warner Brothers short, "Rope'em Alive." This was about roping python snakes and selling them to Zoots.

The coming weeks attract is "They Died With Their Boots On" and stars John Wayne.

MARCHBANKS

By Leslie Linhares, and Bobbie Carroll

Among those getting a glimpse of the Zoo and its inhabitants for the first time where Sharon and Billy Edwards and Calvin and Dennis Nelson. Puddles the Hippo won the affection of many. The perennial favorite however, continued to be the spitting chimp, Shirley.

Denise, Barbara, and Mike Davis nearly missed the chimps line of fire while Judy Crudo was not quite as lucky.

FEATURE EVENT

The feature event of the coming week is the San Francisco Bay and Fisherman's Wharf Tour. The event will take place on July 25. Because of its huge success in the past, the number of children participating will be limited. The limitation will be announced at the various playgrounds. See your director and sign-up now.

THE OUTDOORS

TROUT WITH REDMOUTH SOMETIMES EDIBLE

Trout infected with redmouth disease are not harmful to humans if properly cooked, the Department of Fish and Game said today.

The statement was made in answer to many queries which followed a discussion of the disease at the recent meeting of the Fish and Game Commission.

"Trout, both wild and hatchery raised, are often infected with parasites or diseases of one kind or another. Yet there never has been evidence of harm to an individual who ate trout properly cooked," the Inland Fisheries Branch said.

Meanwhile the Department is going ahead with thorough inspections of commercial trout hatcheries in California, and is continuing inspections of trout imported from other states.

Redmouth disease was found to be prevalent in several Rocky Mountain states from which commercial hatcheries were shipping large quantities of live trout into California.

Department fisheries parasitologists are accelerating their study of the disease in order to take more effective control measures.

GOLDEN TROUT EGG TAKING LATE THIS YEAR

Taking of golden trout eggs at the Cottonwood Lakes station in the southern Sierra Nevada is about one month late this year due to unusually heavy snows, the Department of Fish and Game reported. Although a crew from Mt. Whitney Hatchery packed in on June 7, heavy spawning did not begin until July.

SHAD FISHING HITS PEAK OF POPULARITY

More anglers fished for shad this year in northern California streams than ever before, the Department of Fish and Game reported as the runs neared their close in most streams.

No estimates have been made of the number of shad fishermen out, but some streams like the American River were literally lined with shad addicts.

Sporting good stores in the Sacramento area, unprepared for the rush, sold out of shad flies early, re-ordered and sold out again.

As action slowed in the central rivers, reports were received of shad entering the Klamath River. Department fisheries men believe that as more anglers experience the game qualities of this beautiful silver fighter, the fishery is headed for another record season next year.

EARLY ARCHERY DEER SEASON OPENS JULY 21

Bow and arrow hunters open the 1956 deer season July 21-30, inclusive, when the coastal archery season prevails. The regular coastal firearms season opens August 4.

The archery season for bears is open concurrently with the archery deer season with a bag limit of two deer, forked horn or better, and two bears, in the coastal district.

In the special Los Angeles County archery season, two deer of either sex may be taken. This season opens July 21 and runs through December 31.

Archers are reminded that they may not carry firearms or have firearms under their immediate control while hunting deer with bow and arrow during the archery deer season. The use of crossbows or dogs during the archery season is prohibited.

FISH AND GAME BRIEFS

Effects of last winter's floods still are being felt by Department of Fish and Game screen crews. Screens on various irrigation diversions are requiring much greater maintenance due to heavy amounts of silt and debris in streams.

Nearly two and one half million rainbow trout fingerlings have been planted in Lake Tahoe.

Reserve fish and game wardens, who work without pay or expense, worked 319 hours, traveled 4,225 miles and issued or assisted in issuing 22 citations during June in Fish and Game Region II with headquarters in Sacramento. In addition, they spent 161 hours on hunter safety training.

A check of chukar planting areas in western Merced and Fresno Counties showed both airplane and truck plants producing good hatches. Prospects of establishing new chukar populations appear excellent.

A recent check of Putah Creek drainage in Napa County, which was chemically treated to remove rough fish, showed a good population of smallmouth bass which were stocked earlier this year. The drainage was treated to eliminate rough fish before water is impounded behind Monticello Dam.

MANY UNDERSIZED STRIPERS TAKEN IN SACRAMENTO R. Small striped bass, generally under 12 inches long, are being caught in considerable number in the Sacramento River and Delta area during the summer months, the Department of Fish and Game believes.

A recent drive by Fish and Game wardens in the area netted 22 violators for possession of undersized fish, and showed that many other fishermen were catching and releasing small stripers.

Because most of the anglers were using sardine bait to catch catfish, the small stripers were swallowing the bait and many were injured when taken off the hook.

Wardens pointed out that there are virtually no legal sized bass (16 inches long or bigger) in the river or delta north of Suisun Bay during the summer months.

For this reason they appealed to sportsmen to use worms for catfish bait, as the stripers usually do not take this form of bait as readily as catfish.

If small striped bass do happen to take this bait, anglers are asked to use extreme care in removing the small fish from the hook and returning them unharmed to the water.

If the bait has been swallowed deeply, sportsmen are requested to cut the leader above the hook.

FISH & GAME HQ. OFFICE AT NEW ADDRESS

Offices of the Department of Fish and Game headquarters in Sacramento have been moved to 722 Capitol Avenue, Sacramento.

To expedite correspondence, sportsmen's groups and others having regular correspondence with the Department, are urged to bring their files up to date.

JUNIOR OLYMPICS TO 'ACCENT ATHLETICS' AT GARDEN VILLAGE

It'll be "accent on athletics" at Garden Village school playground this week when the summer recreation group stages its Junior Olympics Friday, July 20, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Events will include 25 to 100-yard foot races for various age groups, running broad jump for boys, standing broad jump for girls, boys' and girls' softball throw for distance, and girls' soccer ball kick for distance.

Ribbons will be awarded for first, second and third places.

Last week's special event staged by the summer rec group was an outing to Golden Gate park. Close to a hundred youngsters and adult supervisors drove out to the park, lunched at the music concourse, toured the aquarium, African hall and the Academy of Sciences building, and romped on the green beside Kezar stadium.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

A total of 20,753 persons were injured and 858 were killed in traffic accidents in the unincorporated areas of California during the first five months of this year, according to the National Automobile Club. This represents an increase of 5.93 per cent and 8.60 per cent respectively over those injured and killed during the same period of 1955.

B. Y. A. MIDGET BREAKS LEG ON HOME PLATE SLIDE

B.Y.A. Midgets and Glen Park battled to an eight-inning 7-7 deadlock Saturday after the game was called because of darkness.

Both coaches agreed to call the game a tie, with the stipulation that if either team made the playoffs, the contest would be re-played.

The tie was a costly one for the B.Y.A., as Cesar Rivera suffered a broken leg in the second inning after sliding in safe at home on a round-trip smash. He was hospitalized at Park Emergency hospital and later transferred to Junipero Serra, where he is reported doing nicely.

Team members got together and autographed a ball to be presented to him "as a token of our esteem and admiration for a fine team mate."

Next Saturday the Broadmoor club battles with Columbia Park Boys club at Balboa diamond, starting at 12:30 p.m.

A KIDS BONANZA: BASEBALL CLINIC, NITE SEALS GAME

Seals ball stars Russ Kemmerer, R. G. Smith and Don Lenhardt will headline the hour and a half baseball clinic to be held Friday from 10 to 11:30 a.m. at Marchbanks park, Elman Rose, director of the Garden Village summer recreation program, announced.

The clinic, part of the 10-week fun schedule now at its halfway mark, will give young diamond enthusiasts a chance to learn from men who know the art of fielding, pitching, hitting and other aspects of the popular sport. Kemmerer and Smith are hurlers for the local ball team, while Lenhardt is known for his work on the outfield.

As a supplement to the clinic, 200 area youngsters will be treated to a free night at Seals stadium at 8:15 p.m. on the same day, at which time the Seals will be seen in action against Los Angeles at one of their home games. The Seals management is admitting the boys free and extending a courtesy pass to one adult chaperone for each group of 15 boys. The night's passes will be good for any seat in the grandstand, except reserved areas and boxes.

Community folks who wish to join the youngsters are advised to assemble at the lower parking area at Garden Village school for instructions.

The day's activities are being offered through coordinated efforts of the Daly City recreation department and the special recreation program sponsored by Jefferson Elementary School district, James L. Snell PTA and local homeowners' associations.

Pisa Raps Ocean View, Shell In Lopsided Tilts

Backing a new pitcher, Terry Christman, Dante's New Pisa Juniors bore down against several tough decisions and some bigger lads to slaughter the Ocean View Juniors 18-4, at Ocean View Playground Saturday afternoon.

Christman, just in from Bakersfield, struck out seven while walking only one, and scattered nine hits so that the scoring was held to three innings. Pagni, Manney and Timberlake each got two hits off young Terry, but he was tough in the clutches, and was helped by six assists by Richy Morales. Bill Hynes threw out one man at third and fielded a bunt to help. George Claus and Mike Rovai fielded well and Barry Krohn had ten put outs at first.

Claus kept fooling the pitchers with three hits, and was joined by Morales and Christman with three each. Krohn and Rovai got two and all the others hit safely at least once. Hitting behind the runner netted 18 runs for only 17 hits as the youngsters stayed on top of the Recreation league.

Billy Kane pitched the last two innings against the Johnny Shell's at West Sunset on Sunday, and faced only eight men, striking out four of them. Kane walked a couple at first, but held the Shell's hitless to keep the 11-1 score intact. Mike Wall started, walked seven and gave up only four hits, and was touched for the only run when two were put together in the second. Wall also fanned three, once with the bases loaded.

Johnny Shell's were handicapped with vacations, but Don Kunkle, son of the old Yankee, poled a long three bagger and got one other hit, while playing three different positions. His brother Bob didn't get a bingle, but fielded well in the tough spots. Barazoto moved over from first to pitch and made three assists after making four put-out outs at first.

Rovai, Claus and Morales each got two hits. Krohn and Hynes got the other two, each batting in two runs a piece. Duke Jones robbed Bersie of a sure double with the bags loaded in the fifth, and Billy Ludwigen closed the game with a great catch at center in the top of the seventh. Morales made an unassisted double play in the fourth with the bases loaded to save a score in that frame.

Saturday's game was marred with an accident at second in the sixth. Roscoe Smith was covering second when Jones tried to steal after hitting safely. It was a close one, and Jones spikes gashed Roscoe's leg, but the game Smith held the ball for an out. Smith, incidentally, is an outstanding student and athlete at Aptos Junior High, where he won his block "A" while a low seven, a feat never accomplished before.

The New Pisa kids will meet the South San Francisco Optimists at Orange Memorial Field next Saturday. Daly City folks can see this gang at Marchbanks on Sunday, when they will play the famous Columbia Park Boys club at 11:30 a.m.

Annual Kids Fishing Day Set August 8

The annual Lions Fishing Day will be held at Lake Merced as usual, from 8 a.m. until 1:30 p.m., announced chairman Joseph Belli Jr.

Free ice cream and sandwiches are offered by the Lions, but young Isaac Waltons can bring their own lunch if they desire.

Golds, Brisbane Conquer Colma, Lakers As Rec Basketball Loop Opens

Diminutive Don Miller's 13 points paced Daly City Golds to a 35-30 triumph over Colma in opening act of the Daly City recreation department Summer Basketball league this week.

Gordon Johnson's fine defensive play also contributed to the Golds' victory.

Although holding a considerable height advantage, the losers couldn't find the bucket, their only consistent scorer being Gary Olenberg with 10 markers.

In the second game of the curtain-raiser the defending champion Lincoln Lakers bowed to Brisbane, 41-35.

Flashy exhibition of team play enabled the Brisbaners to take the lead early and hold it throughout the more experienced Lakers.

Ray Vuillemainroy and Puzzy Firth spear-headed the Brisbane attack with 14 and 12 points, respectively.

Top scorers for Lincoln was Larry Pottenger with 14, followed by Dennis Marc, who hit nine and worked well under the boards.

The Lakers were at a distinct disadvantage in the closing minutes of the game, playing with only three team members on the floor, as the other two starters fouled out.

Everybody on Jack Ingles, Westlake nine hit safely except Bogel, and he was walked three consecutive times.

Blair Le Mire rapped a pair of doubles, while Bob Bandettini and Ralph Gentile each clouted a two-bagger, as the Merchants amassed a total of 14 base blows.

The Westlakers, now sporting an 8-3 exhibition record, will square off against Santa Rosa there this Sunday.

Four of the Merchants have been selected for the semi-pro All-Star game July 29.

Named to the team were Bandettini, utility player; Al Bosque, center fielder; John Carli, catcher; and Darrell Hadley, third baseman.

Walk Run In

No further trouble developed for either club until the last half inning of the ball game. Hanley drew a walk, catcher Dixie Howell got a clutch hit, McHugh reached 1st on an error and loaded the bases. Fielder Frank Dykes, with the winning run in front of him, worked a walk for himself and forced the winning run across the plate.

The B.Y.A.'s starting pitcher, southpaw Reese allowed but one hit in four innings, walked none, and struck out two and allowed no runs. Right-hander Bob Goodwin, after a tough fifth inning, settled down to his usual fine form and ended up with three strike outs and three walks after giving up six hits.

Extra Support

Right fielder Art Banos, with a nice catch of a hard fly ball, Bill Hix's outstanding performance at short stop, and the only double play of the game, Hix to Heick, to Dougherty, gave the B.Y.A. hurlers extra support in the clutch. Possibly the outstanding play of the game was a catch of a fast dropping fly ball deep behind second base by second sacker Heick, who in a real good effort came down with a ball that was, or should have been a hit.

Some of the boys from both teams, along with managers Chauncey Griggs of St. Elizabeths and Everett Heick of B.Y.A. were given a surprise opportunity to appear on T.V. Channel 13 and were given a few pointers by Bob DiBetro, Seals first baseman.

Both teams were given an opportunity to appear again on T.V. Wednesday night on Channel 9 at 6:30 p.m.

Rockets Gain Hollow Win In Peninsula Loop

After a two-game drought, Westlake Rockets picked up a win in the junior division of the Peninsula Baseball league Saturday, but it wasn't an illustrious victory.

The Rockets claimed a 7-0 forfeit victory over Sharp Park, as the Coastiders failed to show at the Marchbanks diamond.

The win gave Westlake a 2-1 mark in league play, way off the pace they set last year when they claimed the championship.

Westlake is scheduled to meet San Bruno at the latter's diamond this Saturday, starting at 10:30 a.m.

Ralph's Racks Eagles To Pace Softball

Ralph's Cleaners continued to pace the Daly City Recreation department Softball league as they clipped the Eagles Monday, 6-1, after sporting to a five-run lead in the initial inning.

Facing Ralph's undefeated club at the plate was Rich Watson, who banged three singles in as many trips.

The Eagles put up a valiant team effort, but were unable to solve the slants of Ralph's chucker Bill Mendoza, as he held the F.O.E. to a few scattered singles.

The week's tightest contest was held Friday, when Broadmoor Police squeezed home a run in the bottom of the eighth to down Daly City Drug, 4-3.

Drugs Lead Early

The drugmen took a 2-0 lead right off and held it going into the bottom of the fourth, when Broadmoor collected three runs on a pair of hits and three walks.

Daly City came back in the seventh with a tally to send the contest into extra innings.

Tony Contreras was Broadmoor's hero in the eighth canto, as he squeezed home the winning run. Tom Gonzales turned in his usually capable pitching performance for the winners, although L. Rollings banged him for a homer and a single.

The defending champion Wm. Lagomarsino nine dumped an outplayed Gino's club, 18-3, Thursday as the losers couldn't buy a hit until the fifth inning against the seven-hit combined efforts of V. Drago and A. Arnold.

Silacci Raps Homer

J. Silacci's homer and double in four trips provided the bat bombardment for Lagomarsino. R. McDough paced the losers hitting and displayed fine fielding.
